Free Education on Serious Mental Illness (SMI) from SMI

SMI Adviser offers dozens of free online courses on topics related to serious mental illness (SMI). Earn CME/CNE/CE credits and enhance your clinical practice with guidance from experts.

This education is completely free to access and you can learn more right now at SMIadviser.org/education.

[Insert Your Organization Name Here] is a partner organization of SMI Adviser and contributes expertise and guidance from our team to the initiative.

SMI Adviser offers live webinars each week. Hear evidence-based insights and participate in live Q&A with faculty. Each webinar is also available in on-demand format. It is an ideal way to provide education about SMI to a small practice or an entire staff in a community hospital or medical center.

Topics include evidence-based treatments for SMI, shared decision making, peer support, psychosocial interventions, smartphone apps and technology for SMI. and much more.

SMI Adviser invites you to join its #MissionForBetter. Visit SMIadviser.org and sign up for a newsletter to find out about new resources, education, and more.
